ACLU OF RI POSITION: SUPPORT

TESTIMONY ON 21 – H 5609, HOUSE RESOLUTION SUPPORTING FEDERAL LEGISLATION GRANTING STATEHOOD TO THE PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON, D.C. March 24, 2021

The ACLU of RI is appreciative of the opportunity to provide testimony in support of this resolution which would support federal legislation for the granting of statehood to Washington, D.C. Those who live in Washington, D.C. are the only citizens in the democratic world who live in a national capitol and do not have equal voting and representation rights. This voter suppression is antiquated, racially discriminatory, and must be rectified by granting statehood to these voters.

D.C. statehood is not only an issue of representation, but an issue of residential autonomy. D.C. does not control its own laws or its own criminal justice system. Unlike every other state, D.C. cannot pass its own laws without “congressional review,” which Congress has repeatedly used to block the will of the people in D.C. Though this suppression is harmful to D.C. residents on its own, Congress has further ability to create its own laws for D.C. residents without input from D.C. residents themselves, which often happens through forced “riders” on D.C.’s annual budget. In just one example of this inappropriate control that Congress wields over D.C., in 1998 Congress blocked D.C. from using its own funds to pay for an HIV/needle exchange program, stalling the program for over a decade and costing D.C. residents their lives and their money.

Additionally, D.C. already operates with the realities of statehood but without the same representation or rights afforded to all other states. In fact, D.C. residents pay the highest per-capita federal income taxes in the entire country, and these residents pay more in federal income tax than the residents of 22 other states.

In keeping with the tenets of civil rights, equity, and democratic representation, it is critical that D.C. be granted statehood. We urge the passage of this resolution which would importantly signify our state’s solidarity in the campaign for Washington, D.C. statehood.

Thank you for your consideration.
